1	To finish a bit later as some of us travel three hours and it's a bit of a rush.	4/2/2017 1:45 AM
2	Sensory equipment.	4/1/2017 11:23 AM
3	same as this year	3/29/2017 1:00 PM
4	Wider variety of stalls	3/29/2017 2:34 AM
5	More books and things relating to mental health	3/28/2017 1:18 PM
6	I know everyone is tired and sick of it by the time they get to Dunedin but bring as much of your stuff as you can. Also, enough of the brochures, goodies etc. Because Dunedin is the last stop, a number of stands said "sorry, we've run out" which makes it annoying having to write your details down and wait for them to be sent.	3/28/2017 9:45 AM
7	adequate	3/28/2017 7:30 AM
8	More sensory equipment	3/28/2017 2:42 AM
9	more of the same	3/28/2017 2:13 AM
10	Dunedin first - people presenting equipment looked very tired by the time they get to Dunedin :)	3/28/2017 1:57 AM
11	Really more of the same	3/28/2017 1:22 AM
12	more of the same-excellent Dunedin show.	3/28/2017 12:49 AM
13	Maybe some exhibits tailored towards supports for clients with mental health issues. i.e. agencies that can offer support through diversion such as art therapy.	3/28/2017 12:19 AM
14	some demonstrations	3/28/2017 12:15 AM
15	A summary sheet/contacts for all exhibitors.	3/28/2017 12:05 AM
16	Possibly more variety, there was a lot of 'bigger items' seating, beds, pressure care products; it would be great to see some of the smaller items around too, if possible, such as smaller ADL and IADL items, but that may not be the brief for the exhibition	3/27/2017 11:32 PM
17	More accessories for wheelchairs	3/27/2017 10:47 PM
18	more home equipment	3/27/2017 12:26 PM
19	More of the same, any new products on the market	3/27/2017 11:16 AM
20	I don't have anything to add.	3/27/2017 10:36 AM
21	I think it was good so plenty of things	3/27/2017 9:45 AM
22	Better advertising to let CLIENTS know that it is on, and how they would benefit from seeing and learning about equipment and service providers	3/27/2017 9:44 AM
23	you have done very well, it shows that these things are geared at either govt subsidised users or those with above average resources. Therefore the inclusion of funding avenues would make it more relevant to the average kiwi	3/27/2017 9:19 AM
24	More of the same, updated product lists	3/27/2017 9:16 AM
